

MASTER BREWER ACADEMY

Study Abroad - Germany & Czech Republic

July 29th - Aug 5th, 2023

Master Brewer Academy would like to welcome you to its first ever “Study Abroad” program. With our love of craft brewing, we watch the American trend for craft beer extend into countries all over the world, so it only makes sense to see how it is spreading in the land of German and Czech beer - arguably the “best in the world”. Your guides will be German native Michel Dammann, and MBA Director of Ed (and 5 year Berliner) Todd Space for a weeklong study of brewing and the growth of craft beer in Germany and the Czech Republic.

Lunch in Žatec brewery

3:30 pm - Meet at Hop Research Institute for tour

This is going to be a long “Pack-it-in” day, but a wonderful one!! Starting at the Weyermann malting house, established 1879 and “world market leader in specialty malts”, on to Žatec - the home of Saaz noble hops - with a 700 year history of its cultivation and use in brewing. We will end in Prague, where you can either call it a day, or head out with your hosts for a night walk along the Czech national river.

Tuesday 01 August: Prague - Berlin

3:30 pm - Van leaves for Berlin, by way of Bayerischer Bahnhof Brauerei in Leipzig (home of Gose)

* Optional visit to Berlin Biergarten for schnitzel und brezeln und Bier (natürlich)

Although you need 4 days to really check out Prague, you will have the morning to explore the main attractions of this capital of the Czech Republic. Your hosts will guide you to their favorite sites, or feel free to go around on your own. We will meet at Strahov monastery (brewery) for lunch and a few glasses of “Pivo” on monastery grounds dating back to the 12th Century. You’ll then get a chance for a road trip nap while we make our way to Berlin on the “Autobahn”. Once in Berlin you are welcomed to join your hosts for a night out at our favorite beer gardens, or...

- Breakfast on your own in hotel

* Optional tour with hosts of Berlin (Berlin wall, Jewish museum, Underground...)

2:30 pm - Meet at Südstern brewery

4 pm - Arrive Brewdog. Tour of facility. (formerly Stone brewing)

Berlin is another town where at least 4 days or more are needed to really get a feel for its culture, art, science, and of course, beer! Again, you are invited to join your hosts as we visit our favorite locales, or venture out on your own. Berlin has world-class public transit, so getting around is easy! We will meet for lunch at Südstern brewery, then jump on bikes to make our way to Brewdog (formerly Stone) for a tour.

Thursday 03 August: Berlin (Yeast) - Hamburg

- Up early for breakfast in hotel

9 am - U-Bahn to VLB (Versuchs- und Lehranstalt für Brauerei in Berlin e.V.).

12 pm - Lunch at Biergarten Schleusenkrug

2 pm Van / Train leaves for Hamburg

Berlin's VLB is one of the 3 most important brewing schools in Germany - meaning it's one of the top worldwide!! There we will get a chance to see brewing research on a scale that your most experienced "craft" breweries never even considered. From there we will lunch at Schleussenkrug at the edge of Berlin's Tiergarten (main central park). From there we will jump on the train to Hamburg (Germany's 2nd largest city after Berlin). Once in Hamburg, your hosts will give you an overview tour of this important harbor city.

Friday 04 August: Hamburg (Water)

- Breakfast at Casa de Dammann.

10:30 am - Harbor tour

1 pm - Lunch at Astra Biergarten

3 pm - Meet at Kehrwieder Brewery for tour & tasting.

8 pm - "Feierabend"

What better way to start our foundation on brewing water than ON the water! Hamburg's history as a port town (3rd largest in Europe) goes back to the 1st Century - destroyed and rebuilt many times after invasions by Vikings, Polish Kings, Danish raids, and even the black plague in the 1300's. We'll then relax on the banks of the Elbe with Hamburg's go-to beer at the Astra Biergarten. From there we'll check out one of Hamburg's most creative craft breweries. We end the day with a traditional German "Feierabend" (look it up - doesn't translate well).

Saturday 05 August: Hamburg

- Breakfast at Casa de Dammann

10:30 am - Depart for Ratsherrn Brewery - tour, tasting and lunch

1 pm - U-Bahn to Reeperbahn / St. Pauli.

*Return to Casa de Dammann to pack up / decompress

6 pm - Beach BBQ and farewell "fire ceremony"

Our last day in Hamburg (and last day for our Study Abroad adventure), we'll keep it slow and low. We start with relaxing breakfast and make our way to another interesting Hamburg craft brewery - Ratsherrn. From there, we work our way through the neighborhood of St. Pauli, Hamburg's "entertainment district #1", and famous for being the location for the launch of the Beatles' live performances. We'll give you some down-time to organize your luggage, and head out to the banks of the Elbe for our last supper.

Sunday 06 August: Hamburg - your next destination

- Breakfast at Casa de Dammann: rest of the day on your own (with your host's support)

*FYI - One of the best Hamburg experiences is the Fish Market. Doesn't sound exciting, but the most bizarre combo of tourists, market shoppers and partiers returning from their night out. It's from 5:30 am to 9:30 am, so up and at-em if you're able!! (I recommend smoked eel and an astra for breakfast).
